

Student: _____

Grade: /20

Content/Development

Subject Matter:

The goal of this assignment was to provide an opportunity for students to contemplate: a significant stressor and/or time of crisis in the life of their family and to applying information from the chapter to describe your family's experience, their response to the stressor/crisis. And finally, how the family coped, and lessons learned from the experience.

Assignment Components:

- Identified and discussed the types of stressor(s) present and if it became a crisis, the reasons are provided.
- Described and summarized what the family looked like during the stages of family crisis course explained in chapter 13.
- Addressed and discussed how the family coped and adjusted; and resources needed, used or should have been utilized.
- Shared what came from this experience through lessons learned and knowledge gained about the family and even oneself.
- Application from the chapter was present throughout the reflection.

Mechanics & Organization

The student uses correct grammar and spelling. Format and citations are consistent with APA rules

- Rules of grammar, usage, punctuation are followed & Spelling is correct
- Sentences are complete, clear, concise, and well-constructed
- Transitions between sentences/paragraphs help maintain the flow of thought
- The tone is appropriate to the audience, content, and assignment

The paper is organized in a logical and coherent manner.

- The introduction provides a sufficient background on the topic and previews major points
- Structure is clear, logical, and easy to follow
- The body of the assignment addresses all components of the assignment in a clear way
- Conclusion/closing reflections follow logically from the body of the paper
- Paper is laid out effectively—introduction, body, conclusion, and reference page at the end

Valid application and integration of course material is used to appropriately support the content and views of the student. References to sources are used when required

- Information from the textbook and other resources provided are addressed and used to explain and support student's view
- Properly cites ideas/info from other sources using APA
- Paper is neat and demonstrates best work

Components of the assignment instructions are followed

- Displays an understanding of course information and efficient application of the resources and chapter assigned and how to apply them to one's life
- Reflective and thoughtful
- Addresses and answers all questions posed